For instance: There should be a vast difference between the style and get-up of an Ulster intended for a cab driver's use and of one meant to be worn by a man of elegant leisure. Snow is five inches on the level and railroad travel will be stopped by drifts. Country roads were drifted badly before the storm set in and last night's snow will block them sure. Telegraphic communica-tion is O.K. yet, but the snow fall is so heavy on the Dakota prairies that the wires must go

ACCIDENTAL ELECTROCUTION. A Horse and Two Men Stricken Down by a Grounded Wire.

NEWBURGH, N. Y., Jan. 20.-At 8:30 this morning a horse tied to an awning post on Water street suddenly fell, Thomas Dawson, a laborer, rushed to help the beast. As Dawson grasped the head gear of the horse he fell forward, his head striking against the iron awnning post. Robert Salts, another laborer, sprang to pick Dawson up, when he, too, was knocked down. By this time a crowd gathered and they saw it was a case of grounded electric light wire. The company's office was notified and the current shut off. Dawson was picked up dead. There was a smell of burned flesh and scars showed the current had been received on the left side of the head, which rested against the awning post. The neck was blistered, the hair singed and the ear badly burned.

Salts was slightly paralyzed in the lower Senate on the paragraph in the President's limbs. The horse was not seriously injured. Dawson leaves a widow and three children.

He Should Have Called a Convention of the Irish League Three Years Ago. CHICAGO, Jan. 20. - Chicago Irishmen are considerably agitated over the news from New York that President Fitzgerald attempted to organize a secret committee to audit the accounts of Rev. Dr. Chrrles O'Reilly, national treasurer of the league. They regard it as an extraordinary proceeding. "The simple fact is," said an Irishman yesterday, "that Fitzgerald or the men who control him are running the league as if it was their private property. I know that when he came to Chicago last May to consult with Alexander Sullivan he was asked to call a convention, but he only returned an evasive answer. Before the request could be pushed in a way to force him to take some sort of a stand Dr. Cronin's body was found in the Evanston avenue sewer. The excitement that followed drove all thoughts of league matters out of the heads of Irishmen and the convention was forgotten. Fitzgerald should have called a convention three years ago. The constitution under which he was elected says his term shall only extend over a period of one year, and that before the expiration of that time he shall issue a call for a convention so that his successor could be selected. He issued no such call,"

The motion was made by counsel for Muller on the ground that the amount of damages given was excessive and that the verdict was against the weight of evidence.
